

CODE OF CONDUCT

 a brush with great service®

Be nice. Be professional. You are responsible for your actions.

Keep a clean site and a clean truck/trailer.

Be Safe. Follow Stone Valley Painting rules.

Treat others' property with respect and care.

Respect the chain of command. Follow directions.

No foul language or inappropriate topics.

No tobacco or e-cigs at the jobsite, in the trailer, or in company vehicles.

Don't discuss confidential information.

No drugs or alcohol.

Be on time. Before 8:00am, shhhh.

Don't talk, text, browse or otherwise use your phone.

PAINTERS: Wear white pants, Stone Valley shirts and closed-toe rubber soled shoes.

CARPENTERS: Wear tan pants, Stone Valley shirts and steel toe boots.

Learn more. Earn more. Follow Stone Valley Painting training program.

Reduce, reuse, recycle.

No radios or boom boxes. Headphones only, quiet enough to hear others.

Work in pairs and wear shoe covers when working in homes.

Last one to leave, lock up.

